

Cheviot Westwood Kiwanis Bulletin

March 3, 2009

68 actives, 12 seniors our speaker and three guests joined us on this first Tuesday in March. Don Huhn and Jack Butcher met us at the door and collected taxes to help offset the stimulus spending. Bob Hastings gave our invocation, and we were served ham and cheese sandwiches, baked beans and assorted desserts by the Ben-Gals. Our illustrious president Dave Martini entertained us with another good joke to start the meeting on a high note.

HEALTH & CHEER: James Hengelbrok reported that Bob Bernet and Patricia Kitchell are both recovering at home. Tom Griffith was recently written up in the Enquirer. Get well soon Bob and Trish. John Stancil has just been appointed as President Obamas personal chiropractor. He will fly to Washington this week on Air Force 1.

GLADHANDER: Ron Dabney gave Rueben Nystrom a bag of balls. (Golf Balls) They should last him the first hole at Neumann

It's that time of year again to pick the "Citizen of the Year." Please give the names of deserving citizens to Don Clark. Chad Johnson and Bernie Madoff have taken their names out of contention.
