Ray Kroner, “K” Family Committee Chairman, introduced Mike Rolfes who is the LaSalle Key Club Advisor.

Mike introduced Dylan Berryhill, President and Andrew Engel, Vice President. Mention was also made of LaSalle trouncing the Panthers recently, which went unreported in the Enquirer. Both officers gave a tag-team recap of the 15 different area events accounting for 1,055.3 volunteer hours performed by members of the LaSalle Key Club. We all can be rightly proud of their community efforts.

Ray next introduced a long-absent member, Dick Braun, who tripped over his upper lip in introducing the Western Hills University High School Key Club.

Members attending were Antoine McKinney, outgoing President; Quon Cullins, outgoing Vice President; Brandy Wilkerson, incoming President; and Dominique Collins, incoming Vice President. Antoine McKinney recapped his experiences with Key Club stating that it gave him confidence, leadership opportunities and feeling of family within the school. He will be attending Akron University and hopes to join a Circle K or start one if necessary.

Faculty Advisor Angela Campbell Harris elaborated on how much the Key Club has meant to the 35 member students and Western Hills University in terms of reaching out to the community. She was a bit embarrassed about the fatal headless participants at their first opportunity to run the mouse game at our Harvest Home Fair. Now that they have mastered this game of chance, they plan to take fewer chances.

Ray introduced the Mercy Key Club attendees: Jenny Herzog, Melissa Rapien, Nicole Williams and Kelli Blum who served as their moderator. Mercy also participated in the Harvest Home Fair, volunteered for local Veterans groups, held a Cookie Bake, attended Ronald McDonald House, conducted a Sugar Treat for Change and attended the April Convention for Key Clubs.

Sister Nancy Merkle, Mercy Principal, thanked all Kiwanians for making Mercy Key Club possible with our financial and advisor support. Sister Merkle retires this spring after 20 years of dedication to Mercy High School. Cheviot-Westwood Kiwanis have much to be proud of in all our Key Clubs.
