Program

Andy Patton Introduced Carin Hebenstreit to us. She has concentrated on painting portraits for over 20 years. Her portraits, landscapes, and still-life's are in private collections and public spaces such as Cincinnati Music Hall, University of Cincinnati, and Covenant Presbyterian Church downtown. She teaches classes at the Art Academy and that is where Dan Patton met her.

Carin showed us a slideshow of her work. She has done elaborate murals on ceilings in Indian Hills as well as St. Cecilia church. She has done sculptures as well, but there is not as much money in it so she is more focused on portraits. She has also done still-life and landscape oil paintings. She shared many "Strange but True" stories behind many of her portraits with us. Her show, "Nudes", is coming up in Alexandria, KY (see Dan Roth for details). A very talented lady.
