Program

Pete Minges and Matt Roth gave details of this year's fair. Both should have been handcuffed to very attractive women to keep with the spirit of Dave Martini's second last joke as President!

Thursday and Friday sales were up and Saturday and Sunday were down. Details of every fair department were given and overall Matt Roth anticipates we will net over $60,000. Not a bad year. A lot of beer was sold!

Thanks were given to all that worked long hours to make this year's fair a success.

A fair meeting will be held October 6th. The final one of the year.
